

K-LOVE provides programming that is encouraging, worry-free for my children to hear and consistent with my beliefs. If K-LOVE is removed from the community airwaves and not replaced with comparable programming from an LPFM broadcaster, I believe this will have a negative impact in the community -- i.e. not providing an alternative that may encourage positive values in the community. I think K-LOVE satisfies the public interest by encouraging its listeners to be supportive in the community.